

GENUINE TEMPORARY ENTRANT (GTE) ASSESSMENT

As part of the admission process at Sydney Institute of Higher Education (SIHE), you are required to demonstrate that your intention to study at SIHE is genuine and you are Genuine Temporary Entrant (GTE).

Prior to issuing a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE), SIHE will review this GTE Assessment and all supporting documents. SIHE reserves the right to reject your offer if it is not satisfied that you are a genuine student and a Genuine Temporary Entrant. In these circumstances, you will be refunded your initial deposit in accordance with the Refund Policy and the terms and conditions of enrolment.

As part of the assessment process, SIHE may require you to provide additional information, further documents or attend an interview prior to issuing the CoE.

This statement is to be approximately 300 words in total.

REQUIRED INFORMATION

The following information allows Sydney Institute of Higher Education (SIHE) to assess whether you meet the Australian Government's Genuine Temporary Entrant (GTE) criteria. It is important that each question is correctly answered.

1. Why have you chosen to study your course with Sydney Institute of Higher Education?

Please provide the reasons why you choose to study with SIHE and the relevance of the program to your future career and/or educational plans.

2. Has it been more than 1 year since you completed previous study?

Yes No

If yes, please provide the reasons why there is a gap in your studies including why you did not maintain enrolment.

3. Are you currently employed?

Yes No

If yes, please provide the details of your current employer, period of employment and details of your position. You may wish to attach a copy of your resume.

4. Have you made a previous visa application for Australia or had a visa refused or cancelled?

Yes No

If yes, please provide the details including details of visa refusals or cancellations.

5. What ties do you have to return to your home country?

The student visa program is not a way for international students to maintain ongoing residency in Australia. Please explain your financial, family or social ties to demonstrate you have significant incentives to return home.

6. What is your economic situation in your home country and how will you support yourself while studying in Australia?

The Australian Government requires international students to show evidence of at least AUD$24,505 in savings. Please provide an overview of your income in the past 12 months, how your course fees, travel and living expenses will be covered, and details of any financial sponsors who will be providing financial support to you while you are studying in Australia. Also explain what evidence you will be providing to demonstrate your savings, if required by SIHE.

I confirm I am able to demonstrate that I meet these requirements by supplying a certified copy of financial documentation for the past 12 months.

7. What are your employment opportunities upon course completion?

Please provide details of any potential employment opportunities, including salary and other benefits, after course completion.

STUDENT'S DECLARATION

I declare that the particulars given above are true and correct. I understand that incorrect or incomplete statements may result in my application for enrolment not being accepted. I confirm that I have sufficient funds to support myself studying in Australia and have saving of at least AUD$24,505.

Student's Signature Date

Please submit the completed GTE Assessment form, and a copy of your resume (if relevant) to enrol@sydneyinstitute.edu.au
