FOR COMMENCING STUDENTS ONLY

Applications for scholarships for commencing students are competitive and awarded based on prior academic merit, work experience, and civic and personal achievement.

Scholarships for commencing students are intended to deliver equity and diversity to the student cohort. Applicants must demonstrate through a written submission how the award of the scholarship will promote equity and diversity in the SIHE cohort. Please attach supporting evidence.

Please explain how awarding you a scholarship will promote equity and diversity in the SIHE cohort?

FOR CONTINUING STUDENTS ONLY

Scholarships for continuing students are intended to promote student retention and student progression. Applications are competitive and awarded based on academic excellence in the SIHE program, academic improvement in the SIHE program, service to SIHE, or SIHE strategic priorities. Where relevant, supporting evidence should be attached.

Please outline your academic achievements, your service to SIHE or any other reasons why you believe you are eligible for the award of a scholarship.

APPLICANT'S DECLARATION

I have read the Scholarships, Subsidies, Awards and Prizes Policy available online at sydneyinstitute.edu.au/policies and agree with the terms and conditions.

I understand and agree that:

- in the event I am awarded a scholarship that comprises a tuition fee reduction, I agree that all remaining fees will be paid on time.
- in the event I am late in paying student fees, the tuition fee reduction under the scholarship will be forfeited and the full fee will be payable.
- in order to maintain a scholarship in any semester, I must continue full-time enrolment in the current course, pay all tuition fees and additional fees on time, meet all the conditions of my student visa and must not cancel, terminate, withdraw, or defer from the course.
- where I have received a scholarship and cancel, terminate, withdraw, or defer from the course the scholarship will be forfeited and the full fee will be payable.
- SIHE may use of my image in promotional, marketing and online events.
- SIHE is not obliged to explain to me why I was not awarded a scholarship.
